

You will get a great choice of holidays and cruises at the UK's largest independent travel agent

Hays Travel is the biggest independent travel agent in the UK and we are delighted that our Heswall shop has been open now for nearly 2 years. For more than 30 years' we have been sending Brits on their holiday of a lifetime, providing great knowledge and experience along with all the security you would expect from a long-established business. In these days of uncertainty, it is important that you can book with complete peace of mind – you can be assured of that with Hays Travel as we have both ABTA and ATOL protection. As Hays Travel are completely independent, we can offer you a huge range of tour operator and cruise holidays, such as Jet2, First Choice, Thomson, Thomas Cook, Royal Caribbean, P&O, Fred Olsen and 725 others!

Don Bircham, Managing Director at Hays Travel, says: "Our independence allows us to provide our customers with a huge range of holidays and compare prices with all the major UK tour operators. We are under no pressure to sell a particular holiday, unlike many of our key competitors who are incentivised to sell only one or two companies. Hays Travel is also well established across the Wirral and the North West, as well as many locations right across the UK. The combination of our well-trained and experienced travel staff and the very latest travel technology will ensure we find the right holiday for you at a very competitive price. Independent travel is becoming increasingly popular and we have all the tools at hand to build a holiday that is right for you in terms of destination, flights, hotels, duration and that special individual touch. "We are delighted to have Louisa as our shop manager in Heswall. Louisa has worked for the company for 8 years and has grown the shop from strength to strength with the help of her Assistant Manager Gemma, who has been in the Heswall shop since it opened. Louisa & Gemma are joined by Karen who is our Long Haul & cruise expert & Louise & Sarah who both have a vast knowledge between them. Drop in and have a coffee with Louisa and her team to discuss your next great adventure." So whether it's a cruise, an independent itinerary put together specifically for you, a romantic weekend break, a traditional fortnight in the sun, a once in a lifetime dream long-haul destination, or simply a flight, Hays Travel can fulfil all your wishes.

And don't forget about our complete foreign exchange service – we have all currencies available on demand at the very best rates. We also buy back currency commission free!
