

Heswall Hills COUNSELLING CENTRE

Heswall Hills Counselling Centre (HHCC) is a private counselling centre based in Heswall. Taking that first step towards dealing with your problems can be daunting. If you are struggling and need a professional to talk to we can meet your needs. At HHCC all of our highly qualified team of therapists are trained to listen without judgement and provide a confidential and safe space where your worries and concerns are explored and you are helped to find a way forward through your difficulties.

The therapists working from the centre have been selected to ensure we are able to deal with a wide range of difficulties from anxiety and depression to relationship difficulties, addictions, eating disorders and work related stress to name but a few. We work with individuals, couples and children

If you take that first important step of contacting us, Cheryl, a Chartered Psychologist and Founder of HHCC, will help identify the therapist best matched to your particular needs, saving you the time and uncertainty of trying to find the right therapist for you. All the therapists who work from the centre have been personally vetted to ensure they are properly qualified and insured.
