

Port Sunlight Garden Centre – The Place for Plants

Take a potter round the plant area and pick the perfect plants for your plot, the snowdrops are up, the buds are swelling on the blossom trees and the birds are twittering amongst the spring flowering bulbs.

The days are getting longer every day as we head towards spring, time to enjoy the warming sunshine and get out into the garden. We have everything for your garden with fresh new plants arriving daily to inspire new planting ideas and add interest to your pots, tubs, baskets and borders.

Feeling a little hungry after pottering round the plants? Then a visit to the café for breakfast lunch or afternoon cakes is the answer. With everything cooked fresh to order it's a tasty way to spend time with friends and family.

We have everything for your garden this spring and a whole lot more... pop over and enjoy The Place for Plants.
