Burns Afternoon at Abbeyfield

Residents and their guests at Lear House in West Kirby celebrated Burns Afternoon the traditional way on 25 January. Two pipers piped in the haggis accompanied by Archie Peat who read the Address to a Haggis written by Robert Burns. Everyone was given a wee dram to toast the haggis and the pipers played again.

Everyone then enjoyed a plate of haggis, neeps and tatties followed by tea and coffee and shortbread.

The residents were joined in their celebration by family members, friends and staff as well as the Mayor and Mayoress of Wirral.

Local runners' shirt appeal

Members of local running club, Pensby Runners, are donating over 100 long and short sleeved running tops to Wirral's needy. This club initiative aims to donate new, mostly unworn, shirts to the Charles Thompson's Mission in Birkenhead for onward distribution to anyone who may need them within the borough.

Chairman, Roy Fisher, said: "Over the years, our runners tend to accumulate numerous commemorative race shirts. It becomes difficult to actually wear them all, and even storage can become a problem. Under our scheme, everyone's a winner – we declutter our wardrobes and hopefully, others will receive some benefit."
