Volunteering at WUTH charity

Mark Kinnish has recently started a new voluntary role at Arrows Park Hospital with the Wirral University Teaching Hospital charity (WUTH).

Mark told Heswall Magazine: "The charity has recently increased its fundraising activity and part of my role as a volunteer is to provide support at Charity events. We have a brand-new office which is located as you go in through main entrance next to the Pharmacy department. Every Tuesday I work on the information stand in the main reception area. The stand has lots of leaflets about the charity including how you can support and get involved including volunteering. We also have a hospital lottery with weekly draws and a cash jackpot of £25,000. Further information can be found by visiting www.unitylottery.co.uk/charity/display/wuth

"If you are passing the new office and would like more information, do pop in we'll be happy to help."
