

Chatwins opens in Heswall

In 1913 John Chatwin began baking in Nantwich, in the heart of Cheshire. Four generations later they're still a family-owned business who have built a reputation for the finest quality bread, cakes and pastries.

With twenty-one shops across Cheshire, Staffordshire and North Wales they take great pleasure in opening a new shop in Heswall and hope to become an essential part of the community.

So what kind of goodies can you expect to see in your new local Chatwins? To start with, you'll find everything you would expect to see in a typical English bakery, from handcrafted sausage rolls, pork pies and freshly baked bread to fresh cream chocolate eclairs and vanilla slices. You will also find contemporary fare, such as generously filled breakfast baps, hot roast carvery baps and freshly prepared salads and sandwiches. They've also got hot drinks covered too, with their extensive range of freshly ground coffees and speciality teas.

Whether you're on the go, or would like to take a treat home, you'll find they have something deliciously satisfying, just for you.
